

1880s-1960s

1970

People were given options to live in the community with limited supports

1970

Self advocacy organizations began to emerge in the US

WA Education for All Handicapped Children Act (first Education for All law in the US), led to national Individuals with Disabilities Educational Act (1975)

1978

Fist Annual Ellensburg Employment Conference

1980

University of Oregon developed Supported Employment

1985

Washington Initiative for Supported Employment (WISE) is formed as a federal pilot employment training program

1990s

Movement from group segregated employment to typical work environments began

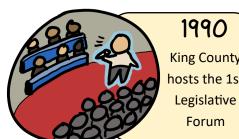

1990s-2000s

National trainers in PASS, PCP, and Employment training brought in, emerging leaders forums began, self-determination demonstration projects, family grants, and other initiatives

1990 King County hosts the 1st

Forum

1990 First Parent Coalition formed in King County 1992

County Guidelines developed with the expectation of community integrated employment

2004-2006 WA State roll-out of the County Working Age Adult Policy, first Employment First policy in the country, now 38 states have EF Policies

King County School to Work program started – first in the state

EMPLOYMENT FOR ALL!

2006-2007

Alderbrook Forums to figure out how to implement EMPLOYMENT FOR ALL

Highline Community College Employment Professional Certification began

2008

Last Ellensburg Employment Conference

2008

King County Partners for Work/Rotary began

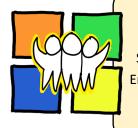

2009-2010

2010

WA State Association for People Supported Employment First (APSE) formed

2013
Microsoft Supported Employment Program launched

2014

Federal guidelines (CMS) required states to ensure access to the community to the same degree as everyone else

2019

WA expands Healthcare for Workers with Disabilities
(HWD)

2020

Covid 19 and Online Learning/Gathering/ Co-learning and Innovation

Transition Collaborative Report and recommendations (DDA/DVR/OSPI/Stakeholders)

Job Foundations
Pilot begins

2021

Subminimum wage was eliminated in WA

2022

Transition collaborative recommendations implemented expanding data sharing and statewide S2W

2023-2024

Dan Thompson Employment Rallies!

Typhan